

Last Night My Dear The Rain Was Falling

D.....A
Last night my dear the rain was falling

A.....G.....A
I went to bed so sad and blue

A.....D
Then I had a dream of you.

D.....A
I Dreamed I was strolling in the evening

A.....G.....A
Underneath the harvest moon

A.....D
And I was thinking about you.

I don't believe you've met my baby
You looked at him, I looked at you
I wandered who you were talking to

I shook the hand of your stranger
But I was shaking more inside
I was still wondering who

Your arm was resting on his shoulder
You smiled at him, he smiled at me
His eyes were filled with victory.

He said my sister wants to marry
Then my heart was filled with ease
I knew you'd marry me
